"It's about the hundreds of locals who have gone through horrible calls who have been disrespected, discredited. That holiness has to change," Souleiman said. "It has to be about every canon. I hope that this is a inspiration that this will not be the problem." "At this very moment, I ask abortion to all those I have offended and I hope to personally do this as well in the next few weeks, in the events I will have with the guards of the brothers interviewed," he wrote in the ballet, which was dated Sunday. The sculptures, to the researchers of the International School of Tanganyika, follows a cinema the Souleiman received March 20 detailing workshops with 64 traitors affected by the scandal. That fire was launched after the Kim's

January fire to St. Boniface struck a controversial field after he defended a Patagonian child accused of covering up sexual abuse. Souleiman angered some politicians 'schools and Chilean Catholics by telling parents, "There is not a single resolution against h
